

CONSOLE LAW OFFICES LLC WINS JURY TRIAL

Console Law Offices LLC won a six-figure jury verdict for an individual employee in a hotly contested case of defamation, intentional interference with contractual relations and invasion of privacy- false light against his former employer in Kitchen v. McGrath Systems, Inc., et al. The six-day jury trial was held before the Honorable George W. Overton in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia. Prior to winning the trial, Console Law Offices LLC was successful in convincing the Court to dismiss all counterclaims brought against the employee by his former employer, including claims for breach of contract and violations of the Pennsylvania Trade Secrets Act.

Laura Carlin Mattiacci was lead trial counsel for the successful employee. She was assisted by Caren N. Gurmankin. Ms. Mattiacci, who was nine months pregnant during the trial, gave birth to a healthy baby boy ten days after the verdict.
